Ex-Sheriff John W. Alexander of Limestone street does not improve and remains seriously ill.

While swimming in the Ohio river at Cincinnati Sunday afternoon, fourteen-year-old Jacob Herbst suddenly got beyond his depth, and before his companions could reach him, sunk beneath the waters and was drowned.

Just received a new line of Neck Chains, Crosses, Lockets, Brooches, New Style Bracelets, Side and Back Combs, New Hat Pins, Set Rings, Cuff Buttons, Brooches, Fobs for Ladies and Gentlemen. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. Allie D. McAtee and sister, Mrs. Pickett, and Mr. Charles McAtee have rented the Shackelford property in West End Terrace and will take up their permanent residence here in a few days. Mr. Allie McAtee will spend the winter in Florida for the benefit of his health. They are cordially welcomed in our midst.

THE LEDGER noted some weeks ago the change in the ownership of the Ohio River Lumber Company. Yesterday there was a reorganization of the concern. George H. Bishop is General Manager, Harry Tolle Superintendent of the planing-mill, and J. R. Devine Secretary. The plant gives employment to about fifteen hands, and it is just such institutions that are the life blood of the city. The business will be conducted at the old stands, and let all pull for home interests and thereby build up the city.

Sunday a gang of country peanut gamblers set up a game of poker and craps in the bushes on the outskirts of Ruggles Campgrounds. Just about the time the games were in full swing Grandpa Lane and his corps of police swooped down upon them, and such a climbing for tall timber there was, my countrymen. In their hasty flight a brand new coat and two decks of cards were left as spoils of the raid. Evil doers will serve their own best interest by giving these grounds the go-by, for men of courage, though they be God fearing men, are ever ready to maintain order and good behavior. They have the names of the guilty party, and it will cost them a pretty sum in the wind-up.

MRS. LIZZIE ORT STEPHENS.

Mrs. Lizzie Ort Stephens, wife of Richard Stephens, formerly of this city, died Friday afternoon at her home in Williamsburg, O., after an illness of six weeks of stomach trouble.

Funeral Sunday afternoon.

She was a daughter of the late George Ort, in his day one of Maysville's foremost furniture dealers.

Several sisters and brothers survive her, among them Mr. Henry Ort of this city.

MR. THOMAS DICKSON.

Mr. Thomas Dickson, an old and highly respected citizen, died suddenly of apoplexy yesterday afternoon at 1:10 o'clock at his store in East Second street while in the act of waiting on a customer.

He was born in this county near Lewisburg some 70-odd years ago.

For many years he was a prominent and successful hardware merchant in Flemingsburg. From there he went to Missouri, thence moving to this city, where he has resided for the past 22 years, respected and loved by all who knew him.

The body was taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Wallingford of the East End.

He was a devout Christian, being a member of the Presbyterian Church.

He leaves one daughter, Miss Gertrude, of Cincinnati, who was here on a visit at the time of his death; two sons, James and Hugh Dickson of this city, one sister, Mrs. W. H. Wallingford of this city, and one brother, Mr. A. Dickson of Missouri.

The funeral will be held at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Wallingford tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, with short service by Rev. Dr. John Barbour.

The remains will be taken to Flemingsburg and buried by the side of his wife who preceded him to the grave many years ago.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS

Helpful Meetings Now in Progress at This Delightful Place

Correspondence Public Ledger.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, July 31st, 1905.

The first Sunday of the meeting has passed, leaving many memories of a most satisfactory kind to the good people here. It was a day in which true devotional worship of God was uppermost in the hearts of the crowd. The meetings up to the present time have all been soul-inspiring, the sermons, as a rule, being above the average of previous years. Sunday was a fitting climax to the first week. The weather was all that could be desired. A large crowd gathered early and the best of order prevailed during the day. The crowd in numbers exceeded that of first Sundays of previous years.

Mr. R. B. Griffith of Indianapolis led the early morning prayer-meeting. Rev. M. Wallingford led the 9 o'clock testimony service, which was largely attended and the testimonies of an inspiring character. Dr. J. W. Easley preached at 11 o'clock one of the best sermons ever heard here. It was full of comfort, encouragement and inspiration, and the best of attention was given to him during the whole sermon. It was remarked that the spirit of devotion and worship seemed to have influenced everyone, for the audience was as quiet and attentive as if in a Church. Dr. Easley has surely won his way into the hearts of our people. He preached again at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. R. Howes preached in the afternoon.

We are furnished a feast of good things this week. Dr. Hanford, whom we all know to love and delight to hear, will arrive today and will have charge of the afternoon services the first part of the week, and then Dr. S. F. Oliver of Union Church, Covington, will have charge of these services the latter part of the week. A number of others Ministers will arrive during the week and will lend their best efforts to the success of the meetings.

On next Sunday Dr. H. C. Jennings of Cincinnati, one of Methodism's greatest preachers, will preach here. Dr. Jennings is the Senior Agent of the Western Methodist Book Concern, a man of wide experience and reputation, and to hear him will be a feast of good things.

Dr. G. N. Jolly of Nicholasville and Rev. V. T. Willis of Quincy have arrived to assist in the services.

The troubles of men with celluloid cuffs seem to have spread to the Campgrounds; one of our most dignified Ministers is minus a cuff, and he is just wondering.

Quite a number of Maysvillians were here Sunday, among whom we note—Major M. C. Hutchins, J. D. Rumans, J. W. Lee and wife, F. F. Gerbrich, Will Schlitz, Kemper Bearley, George Dunbar, E. H. Bryant, D. P. Glascock, Boyd K. Muse and many others.

A familiar sound to the tenters is the squawks of expiring chickens. We Methodists are doing our best to decrease the chicken population in this neighborhood. If we could just be sure that we had eat up all the mutton this year and that there would be no more we would say good.

An important meeting of the Tourist Club was unceremoniously interrupted the other day by the visit of a swarm of bumble-bees, who had taken possession of one cottage and were anxious to spread their influence and neighborliness to the surrounding tenters. We are reliably informed that there was some shouting done that was not on the program when some of the bees attempted a too intimate acquaintance with a couple of the young ladies.

Mr. I. M. Lane, President of the Campmeeting Association, arrived Saturday and is thoroughly enjoying the meetings.

"Grandma" Morris has eleven great-grandchildren on the ground and she took the pleasure of entertaining them at the icecream parlor the other evening.

Mr. R. B. Griffith will leave today for his home in Indianapolis, much to the regret of all. His presence in the many services has been very welcome.

The leader of the music, Rev. A. D. Craig, is getting things in good shape. The choir is increasing in numbers and efficiency under his leadership.

Mrs. Hugh Lawwill and son of Pittsburgh are now among the campers.

Pure Paris Green at Ray's at 20c pound.

Prof. J. R. DeMoss, a prominent schoolteacher and one of the County School Examiners, was assaulted by a crowd of Negroes in front of a Negro Church on the Tates Creek pike near Lexington Sunday afternoon, and was found unconscious in his buggy. His left arm was shattered by a bullet and another bullet was located in his hip. He sustained other injuries, and his arm may have to be amputated.

BEAUTIFUL BEECHWOOD.

But one new face greeted the audience at Beechwood Park last night, and that was "Baby Winifrede," a cute little tot of five years, who won the audience by her cato ways and clever singing. She is one of the best juveniles seen here for a long time. All the other acts were changed, and the show as a whole gave good satisfaction. This company will close its engagement tomorrow night, so if you want to see it go out tonight, pay 15 cents at the gate, which admits to the Park and the show, and get your money's worth.

Storage room at L. T. Gaebke & Co's.

Dr. H. C. Jennings will be next Sunday's preacher at Ruggles Campgrounds.

W. H. McConnel, formerly of Paducah, but recently of Lexington, who was Secretary to the Kentucky Educational Association, was notified by mail, Saturday, from the United States Treasury Department that he had been appointed to the position of Bookkeeper in that Department, with instructions to report at Washington at once.

E. W. Wilson, a young white man formerly employed as a C. and O. trainman, and who was indicted some time ago by the Fayette County Grand Jury on the charge of stealing brass from the cars in the C. and O. yards in Lexington, was arrested Friday at Richmond. The prisoner was taken to Lexington Saturday morning by Chief of Police J. H. Alliman and turned over to the local authorities.

Try L.T. Gaebke & Co's Coal. Phone 216.

Thomas C. Vivion, one of the best known citizens of Fayette county, died at his home near Pleasant Hill of a complication of diseases. He was 79 years of age.

The vaudeville at Beechwood last night was just as good as you find in the big cities at double the price. The charge of 15 cents hardly pays for the wear and tear on the paraphernalia, to say nothing of the labor. Our citizens owe it to themselves to patronize this delightful outing-place.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

CARDINAL GIBBONS says "the trouble maker of this country is money." That must be the reason why Editors have such an easy time.

ON account of continued ill health Judge JAMES P. CANTRILL will resign his Appellate Judgeship, to which he was elected, but has never taken his seat.—Dover Public Messenger.

Judge CANTRILL is no sicker now than he was when nominated and elected. It was never intended that he should take his seat. The fraudulent nomination, the election,—and the salary,—were given as rewards for his partisanship; and while he has rendered absolutely no service to the state, he has drawn the salary with painstaking regularity.

EDITOR ROBERTS of The Leader is having a barrel of fun at the expense of A. M. HARRISON, one of Kentucky's numerous Auditor's Agents who has been caught with the goods on him. HARRISON has been suing various parties for thousands of dollars in "back taxes," and then, upon the payment of a thousand or so to himself and a few hundred to the state, compromising the cases. Here is one of Colonel ROBERTS's conundrums—

Problem in arithmetic: If $1,000 in "settlement" money produces $360 back taxes for the state, why in thunder is it that $1,500 plus $20 for expenses produces only $85 in back taxes for the state? The class will please remain standing until the answer is announced.

It's truly gratifying to find The Louisville Herald coming my way by denouncing the partisan craze in Kentucky which seeks to make a "martyr" of a common election thief, and to spend $20,000 of the people's money for a monument to his memory! The next Legislature should promptly repeal the Act appropriating that amount for that purpose, that coming generations may not blush for a people who so honored a murderer and a political thief, while the statue of HENRY CLAY was permitted to remain headless at Lexington.

Political Pickings

THE "MARTYRED" GOEBEL.

Louisville Herald.

The Democratic Carlisle Mercury knew Goebel in his lifetime and understands Goebelism thoroughly in its every phase and product. The Mercury says:

"If Mr. Goebel had made the title of his bill 'an act to enable frauds against the ballot to be successfully perpetrated,' instead of 'an act to regulate elections,' he would have maintained that high character for frankness his friends claimed for him."

The late William Goebel was an able, far-seeing, resolute and unscrupulous man. He had had for years an eye on the Governorship of Kentucky. The ambition consumed him. Governor Bradley's election in 1895 sharpened Senator Goebel's political cupidity. The result was the Goebel Election Law, designed primarily to pitchfork its author into Kentucky's executive chair.

It failed of its purpose, because its author fell too many thousand votes behind the successful candidate. The legislative steal was then put through, and we are suffering still from its operation. The Goebel Act was amended, but its spirit is yet living and active. Democratic primaries are Goebelized in every part of the state. Nominations are stolen with an effrontery putting highwaymen to shame.

William Goebel's hand and mind and purpose are seen in every department of partisan activity undertaken by his followers or successors. That one man did more harm to Kentucky than generations can efface. But he is a "martyr." A monument at the expense of Kentucky's taxpayers is to be raised to Goebel's memory! Coming times are to be asked to venerate this solitary, self-seeking, revolutionary leader—the Robespierre of Kentucky politics. Why?

Because he was killed by some madman or stricken down by some personal foe. No monument, surely, does the promoter of election thievery deserve. But a monument towering to high heaven we should raise when election frauds have been, by Kentucky's honest and fearless manhood, banished forever from the soil of this state.

IN STRICT CONFIDENCE.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health.—Now Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to another teller the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only, a woman full of sympathy for her sick sisters, and above all, a woman who has had more experience in treating female ills than any living person.

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail, and this has been going on for twenty years, day after day.

Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely free.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as they have been.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not carry a child to maturity. I received your kind letter of instructions and followed your advice. I am not only a well woman in consequence, but have a beautiful baby girl. I wish every suffering woman in the land would write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills.

No other medicine in all the world has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore no prudent woman will accept any substitute which a druggist may offer.

If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

THEY HAVE NERVE

And Generally That's About All That They Do Have

There was a lull in trade in one of our city stores—and during the latter part of July and first of August there are many such hours—and a bevy of bright-eyed, rosy-cheeked female clerks were having a heart to heart talk, as it were, of their trials and tribulations.

"Mrs. S.—is a perfect pest and torment," snapped one of the circle. "Day after day," she continued, "she will walk up to my department and with a most gracious and fetching smile, ask to be shown a certain kind of goods. After having inspected almost every piece on the shelf, she concludes there is nothing there that just strikes her fancy, and with the unwelcome information that she will call again takes her departure to visit some other store and perpetrate the same imposition on another unfortunate and patient clerk."

"Yes," chimed in a petite and demure creature, "they are regular time-killers, and are to be detested for the trouble and extra work they impose on us girls."

"I admire their nerve, for they surely have it with them," was the parting shot.

It is too often the case that ladies who have plenty of leisure time frequently drop in merely to kill time and inspect the latest fads in prints and other goods.

It may be thoughtlessness on their part, but they do a great injustice in imposing on the clerks, as many of them certainly do in the manner described above.

Think about it and quit the habit, for the clerks certainly have a kick coming.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old-fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels, give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided.

The castor oil and the remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence, even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by all Druggists.

LEAN AND LONG

And He Now Holds Forth in the Big County Jail

He was lean and lengthy, but a holy terror, and when he intruded his unwelcome presence into the office of the C. and O. Depot in the West End yesterday afternoon the boys thought a cyclone had let down upon them and for the time being ramossed the ranch.

The wires were called into requisition in search of a policeman, and soon Constables Chisholm and Marsh came to the rescue and after considerable trouble yanked the obstreperous individual off to Jail.

He was one of the wild and woolly and hard to curry kind of ducks, but the boys landed him all the same.

STATE COMMITTEE

Republicans to Hold Meeting at Louisville This Morning

The Republican State Executive Committee will meet at 11:30 o'clock this morning at Louisville, to consider any matters that may come before it.

The selection of State Campaign Committee is principal subject to be discussed. R. P. Ernst was the Chairman of the Campaign Committee last year, and may be again prevailed upon to accept the duties.

The Pulaski County Committee contest will also be straightened out. There are two factions in Pulaski county, and for nearly two years they have been at odds. The old faction adheres to Judge James Denton, who was displaced by Judge Sherman Cooper as Collector of Revenue in the Daviess District. Judge Cooper leads the newer faction.

Any other contests that may arise will be heard by the committee at its meeting today. It is probable that another all day session will be had. The committee will hold its meeting at the State Committee Headquarters.

Kirby's store at Portsmouth was entered by a burglar Saturday night and $244 removed from the safe.

Marshal Ambrose came up last night and returned this morning to Dover, having in charge young Steers one of the participants in the recent robbery at that place. The examining trial of the two now in custody will be held at Dover today.

Dr. Henry W. Kay, who will occupy the present Postoffice room as soon as the Postoffice is moved to the Government Building at Cracker's Neck, has erected a mammoth "Owl Clock" at the corner. It will tell the time by electricity, and he of vast benefit to the Sons of Rest who toil on the settees under the umbrageous poplars on the Esplanade.

The growth of the Ashland Y. M. C. A. has been so great that the present quarters have become entirely inadequate for the work, and Secretary Smith now has an architect at work on plans for a splendid addition to the present building, which will at once be pushed to completion and it is hoped that the splendid addition will be ready for the winter work.

The Frankfort Courier says: "The distilleries are all closed down for the season in this locality, but saw mills and other industries are running overtime. Many houses are being erected; improvements of every description are under way, and laborers, mechanics and skilled workmen have all they can well do. Frankfort is in the middle of the greatest boom in her history, and better times, still, are coming."

They Appeal to Our Sympathies.

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. There is not one of them, however, who may not be brought back to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These Tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and strengthen the digestion. They also regulate the bowels. For sale by all Druggists.

Harry Barnes, colored, was up before Squire Drenel yesterday on the charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons and was righteously given $50 and costs and ten days in Jail.

Miss Anna Moynahan, charged with shooting at Mrs. Eva Lee in Lexington Saturday, failed to appear at the trial yesterday. The case has taken a sensational turn since Mrs. Moynahan swore out a warrant Sunday for Mrs. Lee, charging Mrs. Lee with using abusive and insulting language to her.

FOR WOMEN AND WOMEN ONLY

Much That Every Woman Desires to Know About Sanative, Antiseptic Cleansing and the Care of the Skin, Scalp, Hair, and Hands.

WHAT CUTICURA DOES FOR WOMEN

Too much stress cannot be placed on the great value of Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills in the antiseptic cleansing of the mucous surfaces, and of the blood and circulating fluids, thus affording pure, sweet, and economical local and constitutional treatment for weakening ulcerations, inflammations, itchings, irritations, relaxations, displacements, pains, and irregularities peculiar to females. Hence the Cuticura remedies have a wonderful influence in restoring health, strength, and beauty to weary women, who have been prematurely aged and invalided by these distressing ailments, as well as such sympathetic afflictions as anemia, chlorosis, hysteria, and nervousness.

Women from the very first have fully appreciated the purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy which have made Cuticura the standard humoral remedy of the civilized world.

TORTURING HUMOR Cured by Cuticura.

"I suffered five years with a terrible itching eczema, my body and face being covered with sores. Never in my life did I experience such awful suffering, and I longed for death, which I felt was near. I had tried doctors and medicines without success, but my mother insisted that I try Cuticura. I did better after the first application of Cuticura Ointment, and was soon entirely well." Mrs. A. Etson, Bellevue, Mich.
Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world by Dr. J. C. Parker & Co., Inc., Boston, Mass. Send for a "Book for Women."
